DANGER LURKS IN DISREGARD OF SIGNS

Health Officer Says He Is Amazed at Actions of Some Persons

AGAINST RASHNESS

It is Unlawful to Remove Card Placed on House—Health Offier Judge of When to Lift Quarantine.

Health Officer Louis E. Foulks, in speaking recently about the danger in disregarding the quarantine cards plainly posted at the front and back entrance of every house where scarlet fever diphtheria, small pox and other contagious diseases made quarantineable by law, may be present said, "I have often been amazed at the risk some unthinking people take when they deliberately enter a house where they must first pass by a large yellow card with the warning word in heavy black letters, "Diphtheria." Or it may be a glaring scarlet card marked "Scarlet Fever" Yes they will often stop and read the card and then pass on in, unless the door is locked, or some member of the family stops them.

One day last winter I was posting a house for a case of diphtheria, and had just finished tacking the card on the front door, when a lady came up the steps and was about to enter, but I called her attention to the card and the fact that the house was under quarantine. She said, "Oh, that's all right, doctor. I a mnot at all afraid of these children's diseases. On questioning her I found that she had four small children at her home just across the street. I explained to her that while she might not contract the disease herself, yet she certainly could convey the germs to her own house and infect her children. When she finally realized the possible danger, she declared she would not enter the house for worlds, as she thought too much of her own little ones to run the slightest risk of carrying any disease into her house.

In another case, a doctor phoned to me that a child had just been brought to his office, and he had diagnosed the case as membranous croup. He gave me the name and address, and I hurried to the house to place it under quarantine. I was greeted at the door by an elderly lady, to whom I explained that I came to placard the house and showed her the yellow diphtheria card. She looked at it and said: "Why doctor, you are mistaken. This is not a case of diphtheria, it is just membranous croup and our doctor will be here very shortly and do all that is necessary. I have seen many cases in my time, and I am sure it is not contagious." Well, I certainly had a hard time to explain to her that "membranous croup" was simply the common name for laryngeal diphtheria, a dangerous form of true diphtheria, caused by the germs of that disease. Her doctor also explained it to her when he came later.

If a man deliberately exposes himself to a contagious disease, without a very good and sufficient reason, we would call him foolish to say the very least. But when he does so expose himself to infection, and by so doing places in jeopardy the health and even the lives of others with whom he may later come in contact, I am free to say that such action is nothing short of criminal.

In another section of the country, I knew of a case in which sympathetic neighbors went into a house quarantined for diphtheria and actually kissed the child suffering with the disease! Then they calmly returned to their own homes to play with and kiss their own children.

It is needless for me to state that an epidemic of diphtheria followed in that section, and several lives were lost before the disease was finally placed under effective control.

There seems to be a popular fallacy that adults do not 'catch' the various so-called childrens diseases. To disprove this I need only mention the fact that during the war, we had many small epidemics of diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles, chicken pox and mumps in our various training camps, and yet practically all the men were over 21 years of age.

When a house is placed under quarantine, it is unlawful for any person to deface or remove the card. This can only be done by the health officer or his representative. He is the sole judge as to when the period of quarantine shall be lifted.

Any person entering a house under quarantine, without the direct permission of the health officer, is liable to prosecution and a heavy fine can be imposed. Any person who attempts to conceal or misrepresent a case of contagious disease or who tries to interfere with the health officer while performing his duties, is also subject to prosecution. The laws relating to such matters are very strict, and it is very necessary that they should be, in order that the public health may be protected.

The enforcement of quarantine regulations is the most potent weapon we can use in the prevention of the spread of serious contagious diseases and no good citizen would think of disregarding them. But there are always thoughtless and foolish people who laugh at such things as germs and the transmission of disease, and to such I can only quote the saying: "Fools step in where angles fear to tread."

EPISCOPAL CAMPAIGN SUCCESS

Half of Dioceses in Virginia Have Raised Total of $225,000 is Report

Incomplete returns prove conclusively that the nation wide campaign of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia was a complete success according to an announcement made last night by Rev. G. MacLaren Brydon, treasurer of the diocese and in charge of campaign headquarters.

"Our aim was to raise a total of $270 000 this year in the diocese," said Mr. Brydan, "and of a total of 170 parishes exactly 85, or one half have reported results of their every member canvass which shows that a total of $225.000 has been pledged by 50 per cent of our churches. It is needless to say that when the other churches have reported we will exceed our quota of $270,000 by a substantial margin."

Right Rev. William Cabell Brown, D. D. Bishop of the Diocese of Virginia expressed his deep gratification upon the result of the campaign.

Knocks Down Assailant

J. L. Kelly Quickly Routs Two Colored Would be Foot Pads

Quick action on the part of James L. Kelly, a Southern Railway locomotive engineer living at 2509 Duke street, prevented what is thought to have been an attempted hold up at midnight Saturday night when he promptly knocked down one of the would be assailants.

Mr. Kelly was enroute to his home when he encountered two strange colored men near Union station, one of whom walked directly in front of his path in a rather menacing manner. The second man appeared dazed from the quick action of Mr. Kelly and the man whom he knocked down simply got up and with his companion walked away. A report of the affair was made to the police who are investigating.

CENTRE OF CORK PREY TO FLAMES

Followed Ambush of Military In Which Four Were Killed

DAMAGE TEN MILLION

Front Walls of Houses Blown Out With Bombs—Firing Also is Heard —Populace Panic Stricken

Dublin, Dec. 13.—Several large sections of Cork were devastated by fire last night and today. The conflagration followed the ambush of a military party yesterday, in which four persons were killed and many wounded.

On the south bank of the River Lee a group of public buildings, including the City Hall, the Carnegie Library, the Corn Exchange and other buildings, were razed by fire, while in the territory between the northern and southern branches of the river much havoc was wrought by flames in the business section.

Late yesterday evening it was reported that the fire was under control, but it was said that the damage done by the flames was estimated at between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 pounds sterling.

The fires extended to St. Patrick's street from Cook street to Maylor street, and swept entire rows of buildings on both sides of Winthrop street, leading from St. Patrick's street to Old George's street.

Dispatches from the stricken city say early yesterday a body of new auxiliary police arrived in Cork and, it is alleged, began to act in a provocative manner, firing their revolvers in cowboy style as they entered the town. The day, however, passed without incident, but early in the evening 12 cadets who were riding in a motor lorry were ambushed by the Sinn Feiners close to the police barracks.

The Sinn Feiners, standing behind a bluff overlooking the thoroughfare, dropped bombs on the passing motor.

All the police were wounded, several of them dying later. The assailants escaped before the reserves, which came to the assistance of the auxiliaries, could arrive.

Following the ambush, three civilians were taken from their homes and shot. Then the fires started in a dozen different parts of the city. There were bomb explosions and firing also were heard.

SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL

The most successfull community social, given by the Y. M. C. A., was held at the Westminster building Saturday evening, and was in charge of the Ladies' Auxiliary. Early in the evening a deck shuffleboard tournament was started and six teams entered and play continued until the close of the social.

Emmett Lawler and Miss Mildred Lloyd were the final winners in the deck shuffleboard tournament and were awarded a box of candy each, while the runners up, A. J. Rhodes and Mrs. J. W. Reeves, were also presented with a consolation prize each. A splendid gallery witnessed the games and a great deal of enthusiasm was displayed as the players became increasingly efficient at the game.

Miss Mary Lee Spilman was featured in a tumbling act and A. J. Rhodes gave a very interesting reading which started the evenings program. Little Miss Mazie Parker, a pretty little girl with coal black hair and eyes sang very sweetly, "That's What God Made Mothers For," and little Miss Norvell Lloyd made a decided hit with a descriptive "Lullaby." Mrs. James H. Hulfish was at the piano for the songs, while Miss Hilda Schneider played for the tumbling act.

The social part of the program was in charge of Mrs. Harry B. Caton and Miss Elizabeth Ramey, while Miss Cora L. Cochran and Mrs. Carroll Pierce assisted by Mrs. Richard Acton, Mrs. W. S. Risdon, Mrs. Clarence Parker, Mrs. W. H. Melchoir, Mrs. J. F. Simpson and Mrs. A. S. Mankin had charge of the refreshments, which were served free, and which were thoroughly enjoyed by all

Men's Meeting

Address on Bible Reading by J. H. Trimyer

"The Bible is not being read in the home these days, consequently a Bible Class is a dire necessity," said J. H. Trimyer, teacher of the Henry K. Field Bible Class at the Y. M. C. A. men's meeting at the Richmond Theatre yesterday afternoon.

The meeting was the closing one of a series of six given by the association and was attended largely by the Bible Class men of the city. Mr. Trimyer was chosen for the address and demonstrated that the choice was a fortunate one. His talk was on the subject, "Why Attend a Bible Class," and his experinece as a teacher made it easy for him to deliver a very convincing address on the subject.

W. E. Dunn was in charge of the congregational singing. Rev. O. P. Lloyd offered the prayer and J. H. Hulfish the closing prayer. An expression was asked of the men as to their desire regarding the meetings after the holidays and a unanimous request was secured for their continuance. N. S. Greenaway, chairman of the religious work committee, of the Y. M. C. A. said the matter of future of the meetings would be decided soon after the holidays

Shriners Enjoy Fun

Big Ceremonial Session Saturday Night at Elks—775 Enjoy Banquet

Seven hundred and seventy-five Shriners of Acca Temple attended the banquet given Saturday night in the auditorium of the Elks Home preceding the pilgrimmage to Mecca by a class of more than 100 candidates.

The ceremonial session followed the banquet. The banquet was served in relays and known as "a la Alexandria style" and it was midnight before the visiting nobles departed for their homes. This was one of the biggest ceremonial sessions ever before held in this city.

A parade in the afternoon was a feature of the affair. The candidates participated, and the procession included a squad of police headed by Chief Goods, the famous Arab Patrol of Richmond, and the Shrine Band of Richmond together with the Citizen's Band. Members of the official divan rode in automobiles and the others marched wearing their red fez.

The candidates presented a rather unique appearance, some rode in tiny express wagons push carts and other candidates pulled them, many held to a long rope as they marched and others were placarded "Fresh Meat".

POSTAL SERVICE DEFICIT

Burleson in Report Says it is Due to Congress Insistence on Wage Bonus— Totals $17,270,482

Washington, Dec. 13.—Operation of the United States Postal Service for the fiscal year 1920 resulted in a deficit of $17,270,482, the second largest in the history of the service. Postmaster General Burleson shows in his annual report yesterday to the President, in which expenditures of the Post Office Department are placed at $454,322,609 and revenues at $437,150 212. The Postmaster General charges Congress with direct responsibility for the deficit, explaining that the expenditures included approximately $33,202,600 paid as a war bonus to postal employes, and stating that but for this there would have been a surplus of $18,427,917. Mr. Burleson says he declined to approve the bonus action of the legislative department, adding that he had offered suggestions of another plan for compensating the employes which would have served the purpose without at the same time giving a blanket increase in pay to "thousands who were already amply compensated."

Close Football

High School Team Celebrates Affair Saturday With Supper

The Alexandria High School foot ball team celebrated the close of the 1920 season Saturday evening when they were the guests at a delightful supper prepared and served by Miss Corinne Reardon, director of girl activities at the high school and a large number of the girl members of the athletic association.

The high school auditorium was attractively and tastefully decorated for the occasion and the table decorations were both unique and appropriate for such a celebration.

The menu which follows was a that could be desired from standpoint of quantity and quality and it needless to say that those present attacked it with as much, if not more vehemence than they had their opponents on the gridiron.

The menu follows:

Pickles Olives
Cold Roast Turkey Cranberries
Potato Salad Celery
Paradise Rolls
Tuna Fish Salad Saltine
Ice Cream Cake
Fruit
Salted Almonds Mints
Fruit Punch
Coffee

The program which was entitle "Our Football Army" consisted carefully prepared toasts which were effectively rendered at intervals during the supper.

The program:

Welcome, Miss Katherine Adams toasts, "Our Football Army", The General, Miss Lucy Houston; The Captain, Miss Marion Dienel; The General's Aide, Miss Virginia Steele; The Warriors, Miss Nancy Wattles; The Veterans, Miss Ficklin; Our Allies Miss Mary Asbury; The Homeland Mr. Phillips; The Governor, Miss Catherine Baumgardner; The Chief Executive, Miss Mary Davis; The Red Cross Nurse, Jack Pohl.

Thirteen A's were awarded by the coach to those men who had at all times been essential to the team. They were Capt. Pettit, Hayman, Nowland McDermott, Beach, Jack Pohl, Myers Mitkiff, Dreifus, Travers, Suthard Oliver and Houston. The following men though not awarded letter were given honorable mention, Bayliss, Moore, Wade, Howard and Marion Pohl.

Among the guests of honor was Supt. Sweeney who made an interesting address on the spirit which prevails as a result of clean and well directed athletic sports.

Immediately following the supper a business meeting was held in which Fred Pettit was re-elected captain and Edward Oliver was elected manager for the season of 1921. At the same time the A club was organized and the following officers were elected: Jack Pohl, Pres., Miss Nancy Wattles, vice president; Wilmer Myers secretary and Miss Corinne Reardon treasurer. The A club which is to be composed of wearers of the A, is an organization started to stimulate interest in high school athletics and it is hoped that athletes of former years will join the club and help boost athletes in the high school.

SHOT WHEN HE FLEES FROM THE POLICE

James Carder, Colored, Wounded in Efforts to Elude Capture

COMPANION CAPTURED

Wounded Man Found Hiding Early Today—Police Say He Had Red Pepper in Pockets.

James Carder, colored, who told the police he came here from Wilmington Del., was shot shortly after 1 o'clock last night by Policemen Carlton A. Padgett and Durrer while endeavoring to run away when the police closed in on him and a companion named Jesse Perkins, 35 years old also colored, who also says he hails from Wilmington, Del.

The bullet entered Carder's back and despite the fact that he was shot he continued running at the time both officers blazed away at him. At the time he was in the vicinity of Duke and Payton streets.

Carder was captured at 2:30 o'clock this morning while hiding in a toilet at the union passenger railway station. He was taken to police headquarters by Sergt. Wilkinson, Policemen Spellings and Morris. It was seen that he walked with a decided limp and, after being taken to police headquarters and searched he was transferred to the Alexandria Hospital and treated by Drs. Moore and Powell.

The police claim that they found in Carder's pockets some red pepper, a deputy sheriff's badge and engineer's goggles.

He is being guarded by the police and will be held until a complete investigation is made of his case.

The police also are holding his companion Jesse Perkins. Perkins says he came to Alexandria from Wilmington yesterday with Carder and that Carder came here to see a woman.

Just why Carder wanted to dodge the police is what they are anxious to learn. Without trouble the two officers took Perkins in custody.

The police suspected that the men were the ones who at midnight Saturday accosted James L. Kelly. Mr. Kelly, however, was unable to identify the men.

CORK BURNING SEEN AS BODY BLOW TO PEACE

London, Dec. 13.—The burning of the better part of Cork last night and today by the military in reprisal for a Sinn Fein ambuscade, is in the opinion of many here last night, a body blow to those who have had hopes of an early peace in Ireland.

The outbreak came on the date set for the proclamation of martial law throughout Southwest Ireland and is the first development since Lloyd George announced his dual Irish policy of coercion and reconciliation. The proclamation of martial law had been posted in Cork and other Munster cities but a few hours when the Sinn Fein struck to be followed by the counterblow of the Crown force.

The Labor members of Parliament almost certainly will seize this opportunity to bring the Premier's policy up to debate. They have contended already that by a declaration of martial law Lloyd George has taken a fatal step away from peace. Even the Irish moderates say there can be no peace under the conditions laid down by the Premier.

Money for His Funeral is Found to be Counterfeit

BUSINESS CONDITIONS ARE ENCOURAGING

At the annual dinner of The Pennsylvania Society in New York on Saturday night, Governor Sproul and Chas. M. Schwab made speeches concerning business conditions which are of vital interest. The Governor in his official capacity has had abundant means of knowing the situation, while the remarks of Mr. Schwab are perhaps more important because he is at the head of one of the greatest industrial institutions in the country and for more than 40 years has been intimately concerned in the steel business as employee and employer. Perhaps no man in the world has more knowledge of industrial subjects or is possessed of more practical wisdom.

Mr. Schwab is so far from mourning over conditions now existing that he considers them a natural result and one to be accepted and welcomed rather than made the subject for jeremiads. It was inevitable that a readjustment should take place and it is remarkable that it is going on with so little disaster. All must take losses, but they should be taken cheerfully as mandatory and the basis of future prosperity.

What Mr. Schwab says of labor conditions is particularly important. He does not believe that the working man will or should accept less than now for honest and efficient toil, but it will be expressed in terms of purchasing power rather than in abstract dollars. It is inevitable that certain wage scales shall be reduced and some of them to a considerable degree, but Mr. Schwab holds that this should be done in consonace with declining costs of living. Only foolish men will insist on dollars and all wise persons will wish to keep up purchasing power.

On this basis Mr. Schwab is convinced that the future of the country is secure, that before long production will increase and consumption develop along with reduced prices for commodities. The present situation cannot continue. What we all need is a readjustment as rapid as is possible and with as little disturbance of business as may be secured. This is wisdom from a source which will be appreciated by all intelligent persons.

SPORTS

The Rex Athletic Club eleven put off the threatened victorious invasion of the Dreadnaught clan from Alexandria yesterday afternoon for another year, sending the Virginians home last night on the small end of a 13 to 0 score after a hard fought battle on the Union League Park grounds.

In driving power and punch both teams were well stocked, but in fumbling the Alexandrians proved too adept, and through this fault failed to follow up advantages won on straight attacks which gave them several chances.

Litkus gave the Rexmen the first marker in the second quarter blocking a punt and falling on the ball behind his goal line. The Dreadnaughts had apparently just successfully blocked the scoring chances of the locals recovering the ball on their 10-yard line on an intercepted pass, the first play of the quarter. The other counter came in the last minute of play, the Rexmen getting the ball on downs on the visitors' 6 yard line and taking it over in three line bucks.

Play during the first quarter was entirely in Dreadnaught territory the visitors carrying the ball to midfield on line smashes and losing it consistently in this section of the area on fumbles. The Rexmen twice worked down to scoring range on straight football in the first half a penalty and poor attempt at a field goal costing the first chance.

The second march was apparently stopped on the 10-yard line, as the second period opened, when Hurst intercepted a pass. But the powerful Litkus tore through on the next play, blocked Crouch's punt and then recovered the ball behind the line. Gurley, Hudson and Hasson and Wenzel opened a smashing offense on the kickoff, but gave up the ball on a fumble in midfield and stopped the Rexes on their 20-yard line as the half closed.

Rex held for downs in midfield after the Dreadnaughts had negotiated a brace of first downs at the start of the second half. End runs by Geibel, Cranston and Beyers gave the Rex two first downs but an attempted drop-kick by Dowrick went wild. Crouch punted out of danger and Cranston, who received his kick, was severely injured in being tackled. He was removed to Casualty Hospital where it was reported last night his condition was not serious, injuries about the face causing him pain.

The Dreadnaughts started a formidable march goalward in the final quarter, a 30-yard pass to Hudson, giving them the ball in midfield, but again luck entered, a bad pass shoving the visitors back thirty-four yards where the Rexes gained the ball on downs and went over, Geibel carrying the ball, as the period closed.

The Rexmen gained nine first downs against eight by the Dreadnaughts punting honors were about even, but the locals were able to follow up their advantages by holding onto the ball.

Litkus, Geibel and Beyers starred for the winners, while Crouch, Gurley Hudson and Cornell were the best men for the losers.

FOURTH SUICIDE ATTEMPT PROVES COMPLETE SUCCESS

Chicago, Dec. 13.—Theodore Evans, who killed himself with a revolver Saturday night, had made three previous attempts to commit suicide, according to Dr. Thomas Carter who achieved publicity when he saved the lives of the Lulkart children after their mother had poisoned them.

Evans, a chef, formerly lived at St Louis, where he leaped from the Eads Bridge into the Mississippi, but was saved by a fisherman. His second attempt was at Memphis, Tenn., where he turned on the gas in his home.

The third time was in Chicago in January of 1914. He was a student at the Moody Bible Institute. He swallowed poison. Dr. Carter treated him.

ICEBERG 180 FEET HIGH IS SIGHTED IN ATLANTIC

Boston, Dec. 13.—An iceberg that towered 180 feet above the sea and resembled a cathedral spire was sighted off Cape Race in the westbound trans-Atlantic steamer lane by the Swedish steamer Gustavsholm which reached port here from Rotterdam yesterday.

The big berg was said by officers of the ship to be fully half a mile long. In its wake was a smaller mountain of ice. The companion bergs had apparently been sighted by other vessels as three wireless reports of their presence were made within a few hours. Hydrographic officials at this port calculated yesterday that as the known proportion of ice bergs above water is one in nine the iceberg was 1440 feet under water and 1620 feet from the bottom to the top.

FAKE BURGLAR CHASE IS COSTLY TO MAN

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 11.—The accidental ringing of the burglar alarm of the First National Bank here in the police stations last night resulted in a motorcycle policeman running down Michael Chepey, 63 years old, in the rush to the bank. The injured man had his leg broken.

An employee of the bank, while working after hours, stepped on one of the buttons setting off the alarm. The gongs in the First and Second precinct police stations sounded and a detail of men was sent to the bank, Motorcycle Policeman Arendt was at the Second precinct station and he hurried for the centre of the city.

Chepey, the injured man, in crossing the street, walked in front of the motorcycle. He was removed to St. Francis Hospital.

LOUISVILLE MAN GAINS TWENTY-THREE POUNDS

Five Years of Dyspepsia and Catarrh Had Weakened Him so he Could Work But Little—Tanlac Over Comes His Troubles.

"If there was ever a time in my life when I felt better than I do now I don't remember it," said Michael McCrone, of 541 South Clay street, Louisville, Ky.

"I have not only gotten rid of stomach trouble and catarrh of the head that made my life miserable for five years, but I actually weigh twenty-three pounds more than I did the day I began taking Tanlac. I could not eat anything except very light food but what gas would form and keep me feeling sick at the stomach for hours. I had the worst sort of pains in my life side, and at night especially the catarrh in my head caused me so much trouble I could get but little rest. I could scarce ly breathe lying down and was often almost day before I got any sleep at all. I lost thirty pounds in weight and had very little strength and had to stay home from work for days at a time.

"While looking over the paper one evening I ran across a testimonial for Tanlac that described my case so well that I made up my mind to try it. After I had finished my third bottle I was feeling like a brand-new man. My catarrh was gone, my head felt clear, my stomach stopped troubling me and I could lie down at night and sleep like a child. I can now eat anything I want and never feel a touch of indigestion. I have never felt better in my life than I do now."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, Jr., and all good druggists everywhere.

A STRAIGHT FROM THE SHOULDER TALK EVERY MAN AND WOMAN IN ALEXANDRIA SHOULD READ AND HEED

Much has been said and written about prices in the last few months. The public has been led to expect a "big drop" in prices. We have been fortunate, indeed, in purchasing the entire stock of a large retailer and we are going to offer a great list of seasonable apparel for men and women and in fact, we are giving you the benefit of every cent we made on the purchase of this big stock.

"AN ARMY MOVES ON IT'S STOMACH"

That's a Famous Saying of Napoleon's. He Might Have Said, Too, That Men and Women Work on Their Stomachs and Live Through Their Stomachs. You Can't Do Much Work or Enjoy Life When Your Stomach is in a Bad Condition.

The Famous Four Day Money Back Offer That Local Druggists Are Making on Re-Cu-Ma Gives Everyone Who is Suffering from Stomach Disorders an Opportunity to See Whether Re-Cu-Ma Will or Will Not Benefit Them, at the Company's Risk.

On the health of the stomach depends your health. If you are suffering from stomach disorders life does not hold much pleasure for you. Thousands who have known the tortures of an ill functioning stomach have found relief in Re-Cu-Ma, the famous remedy which has won almost over-night a country-wide reputation. Re-Cu-Ma acts on the four most important organs of the body—the bowels, the liver, the kidneys and the stomach. It tunes up the whole system through these four organs.

The Re-Cu-Ma Company have such absolute faith in the merits of Re-Cu-Ma that they are offering to refund the money of anyone who, after using Re-Cu-Ma for four days, finds that they have not been materially helped. Could any offer be fairer? —Positively not. Sufferers have everything to gain and nothing to lose by accepting this offer. If Re-Cu-Ma does help them as the company says it will they have learned of a remedy that will do them priceless good. If it does not, they have but to return the bottle, and every cent that they have paid for Re-Cu-Ma will be refunded.

Local druggists say that they expect hundreds of people to accept this offer immediately, and there is no reason why their expectations should not be realized. A man who will not accept this fair offer does not want to get well badly. For sale by the Rexall Store and all good drug stores

MOVIES

INGOMAR THEATRE

"Love or Justice," is the name of the Thomas H. Ince play starring Louise Glaum at the Ingomar Theatre today. It was written by Lambert Hillyer and produced under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince.

The story deals with the underworld and holds to view two characters who enact the big moments of their lives while swayed by an overmastering passion.

RICHMOND THEATRE

"The Furnace," the new William D. Taylor production released as a Real art special is an unusually powerful photodrama. The picture will be seen at the Richmond Theatre tonight, is a big production in many senses of the word.

The theme is striking, the action and plot gripping and well portrayed by an all star cast of notables, including such popular favorites as Agnes Ayres, Jerome Patrick, Theodore Roberts, Helen Dunbar, Betty Francisco, Milton Sills, Mayme Kelso and others. Big things are usually expected of such a director as William D. Taylor who produced the picture, but the general opinion is that this time Mr. Taylor has smashed home a real winner.

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYES

Washington, Dec. 13.—One person out of every 159 in the entire country was on the Government civil service payroll last July 31, the Civil Service Commission declared last night in its annual report. The commission adds that of those estimated by the census as employed in gainful occupations in the country one in every 68 was a Government worker.

The total number of civil service employees last July the commission says, was 691,116 and the Government was using them in approximately 1,700 different kinds and grades of work.

There were almost 1,000,000 Government employs at the heighs of the World War, the commission asserts, and adds that prewar figures of some 480,000 in 1916 probably never again will be reached.

Deny Widespread Wage Cuts

Labor Heads Also Insist "Openshop" Move is Losing

Washington, D. C., Dec. 13.—Reports of widespread reduction in wages among organized employes were emphatically denied yesterday by officials of the American Federation of Labor. The officials also insisted that the move for "open shops" is losing and that there is a steady trend toward the union-shop plan.

Wage cuts, according to these officials, have been limited strictly to unorganized workers and to trades such as the textile, clothing and shoe manufacturing which have been affected by the strike of the public against high prices.

E. C. Davidson, secretary treasurer of the International Machinists' Association, asserted:

"The movement has consisted largely of talk and was aimed to intimidate the unions. Well, they've found unions ready to fight back and too strong to be intimidated. In every instance where machinists have been threatened with cuts we have called strikes. The fact that we have less strikes on at this time than in the same period a year ago shows that threats of this kind have been few."

MOVIE ACTOR ASKS $10,000 FOR TOO MUCH REALISM

New York, Dec. 11.—George D. Rose motion picture actor, expert horseman and trick rider, is of the opinion that there might be such a thing as too much reality in motion pictures. Rose brought a suit in the Supreme Court yesterday for $10,000 damages against the International Film Service and the Marion Davies Film Company for injuries he received while acting at Fort Lee on April 9, 1919, in the film "Dark Star."

There was a "rough scene" in the picture, said Rose. It was particularly rough on the actor, who had to meet in a boxing bout a welterweight pugilist known as Eddie Kelly. Rose complains that while the director assured him that Kelly was to treat him kindly, the boxer, on the other hand, had instructions to "mix it up rough." Kelly obeyed these instructions so well, said Rose, that several of the plaintiff's ribs were fractured, he suffered internal injuries and had to quit his motion picture work. Rose added that he is still unable to work.

FIRE DESTROYS INSANE WARDS AT WALTER REED

Washington, D. C., Dec. 13.—One insane soldier was burned to death, several others were overcome by smoke and the lives of hundreds of helpless wounded and shell-shocked war veterans were endangered yesterday when fire gutted two wards at Walter Reed General Hospital. The dead soldier has not yet been identified.

The gutted wards are in what is known as the psychopathic section of the hospital and housed nearly 200 patients, all of whom, however, while mentally unbalanced as the result of war experiences, were able to walk, and because of that fact alone the death toll was only one.

Auction Sale

Public sale of Holsteins at Rockbridge Dairy Farm Wednesday, December 15 (rain or shine), on the far mof David N. Rust, Jr., located three miles east of Leesburg, Loudoun county, on the Washington-Leesburg Pike and being on Goose Creek, ten minutes walk from Compher Station on the Washington and Old Dominion Railway. Car leaves Alexandria at 7:10 a. m., arriving at 9:30 o'clock. Will be met. Having decided to discontinue dairying I will offer at public auction on above date and place without reservation my entire herd of milking Holsteins. 80 head, 16 head registered animals. 64 head high grade cows. The majority of these animals have been bred and developed right on the farm and were sired by such noted bulls as King of Butter Boy King's Son and Soldiers Home Woodcrest Tehee. These cows are all young straight and sound and have never been forced in dairy, but simply run on blue grass pasture in summer and consumed the roughage on the farm in winter with little grain fed. Consequently they will respond immediately to heavy feeding. Some are fresh now milking well and quite a number due within thirty to sixty days. All bred to fine registered bull. The grades are well marked and will make a valuable addition to any herd. The pure breds carry some of the best blood of the breed. The cows have just passed the annual Federal test and health certificates can be issued for shipment to any state in the union. This herd is considered to be on one of the best in Northern Virginia.

A strong wind fanned the flames until within a short time the whole north side of the city seemed to be a mass of fire. The fire department was helpless. People rushed panic-stricken through the streets, fleeing from the blazes, yet fearful of being shot down at any minute for being on the streets after the curfew law. In frantic fear they ran back and forth. Shooting began and continued all night.

All yesterday the flames spread. The heart of the business district was swept, 17 buildings housing drapery firms being among those listed in announcement of the catastrophe issued by the Irish office. Five solid blocks of business buildings were wiped out. Cook and Naylor streets, the main commercial streets of the town, with their fine department stores and hotels, are smoldering ruins. The town might have been mistaken for Termonde, a Louvain or some other Belgian town through which the German invader had just passed.

Hundreds are homeless, business is dead, unemployment is everywhere.

In the Summer Hill district, the scene of the ambush, shortly after curfew two brothers named Delaney are reported to have been taken from their homes and shot, one subsequently dying.

During the hour before curfew terrorism held sway and when the streets were emptied of civilians loud explosions and rifle and revolver shots kept up until early morning. The explosions, appeared to come from incendiary bombs, as persons who ventured to look from their windows saw fires break out in St. Patrick's street and daylight revealed the full extent of the damage.

It is not improbable that lives have been lost in the fires already several persons connected with the destroyed houses and business premises are reported missing.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon people were just beginning to venture again into the streets. The whole city was then in control of the military, and it is understood that the officer in command assured the populace that the military would remain on duty indefinitely to prevent further destruction. The troops are in full fighting order, pickets with machine guns being posted at all vantage points.

Belfast, Dec. 13.—A score of fires had burned themselves out in Cork by 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the firemen were in possession of the ruins. At 6.30 yesterday evening a special train left Dublin for Cork carrying Captain Myers, chief of the Dublin brigade, and a motor engine with crew, in response to a request for assistance telegraphed by the Lord Mayor of Cork.

A deputation of the citizens of Cork, says a dispatch received here, including the Protestant Bishop and the town clerk, waited on the officer forming the Cork troops and requested him to take measures to prevent a recurrence of the appaling damage to property. He promised to send out special military patrols.

The destroyed city hall in Cork was only excelled in point of size in Ireland by Belfast's great civic building. This was the third time it had been set on fire. On the previous occasions the west wing, occupied by the public health department, was burned but no mistake was made this time, the hall being set alight in many places. The great hall, seating 3,000 and having a fine organ, shared the fate of the municipal premises.

It is officially stated that one man was killed and 11 were wounded in the ambush which resulted in the reprisals.

The fact that no serious casualties were caused by the bombs is explained by the statement that preliminary warning was given to all occupants of buildings to leave prior to the attack.

A dispatch from Cork received here says the fire hose was cut, rendering useless the efforts of the firemen. Two acres soon became a furnace. The front walls of houses were blown out with bombs. The great block between Maylor street and Fish street still was burning yesterday afternoon the fire eating its way backwards.

WEIGHS ONLY 75 POUNDS, SCORE OF WIVES ALLEGED

New York, Dec. 13.—Lawrence Schaeffer, 37 years old, arraigned in the West Side Police Court today on charges of bigamy and grand larceny and held in $50,000 bail, is not a heroic figure of a man, being about 5 feet tall and carrying only about 75 pounds but testimony was given establishing that he has two wives and indicating that he has at least 20. Detectives interested in the case said that a surprising tale of the little man's success in winning the affections of prepossessing women and obtaining possession of their money will be disclosed when he is brought to trial. They claim to have located six wives.

Folks With Thin, Pale Blood Hesitate—Feel Uncertain

SHOULD TAKE PEPTO-MANGAN

Red-Blooded Men and Women Know What They Want to do and Do It

If may be you are just recovering from a sick spell—or may be your system is run down and your blood is weak that you are in a poor shape to resist infection—

But if you don't feel and look robust you are not robust. Such state is often due to weak blood, not enough red blood cells, a condition known as anemia.

The best remedy for anemia (bloodlessness) with its low mental and physical vigor is Gude's Pepto-Mangan.

Pepto-Mangan supplies the weak watery blood with the very elements it needs to put new life into it. It repairs, re-creates, and re-builds the exhausted blood, the vital fluid of health and life. Try Pepto-Mangan if you are "rundown." It cannot harm you—it will certainly help you unless you have some deep-seated chronic disease requiring the physican's care. Be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. For sale at all druggists—Adv.

CLARA SMITH STILL FREE

Woman Accused of Murdering Jake L. Hamon Fails to Surrender

Fort Worth, Tex., Dec. 11.—Clara Barton Smith, charged with murder in connection with the death of Jake L. Hamon, national Republican committeeman from Oklahoma and millionaire oil and railroad man, failed to appear at the offices of her attorneys, McLean, Scott and McLean, here yesterday. Miss Smith, it was understood, was to be permitted to return to Ardmore, Okla. Her attorneys expected her to arrive from the vicinity of El Paso, Texas.

W. P. McLean, Jr., member of the law firm, suggested the possibility that Miss Smith had been arrested en route to Fort Worth or had reconsidered her reported intention to surrender, deciding to remain at large as long as she can.

Ardmore, Okla., Dec. 11.—Frank Ketch, administrator of the estate of the late Jake L. Hamon, accompanied by Jake L. Hamon, Jr., will leave Ardmore tomorrow morning for New York on business connected with the estate.
